

WHAT'S UP[®]
FAST FACTS

concert2
cure

Peter Max Art to Benefit American Cancer Society
Auction during concert2cure event

Renowned artist Peter Max has donated his "Flag with Heart" to be auctioned at concert2cure, a concert featuring 22 bands to benefit the American Cancer Society. Credit Cards accepted. Check out www.concert2cure.org for other items.

The artwork, valued at $3,700, can be previewed at the Reed Gallery,
Tula Art Center, 75 Bennett Street. 404.351.8872
Bids will be accepted from 5 p.m. to 12 midnight
March 3rd at the Tabernacle.

ABOUT THE BENEFIT:

March 3, 4 p.m. - 2 a.m.
The Tabernacle
152 Luckie Street

March 4, 3 p.m. - midnight
CJ's Landing
270 Buckhead Ave.

Tickets are $20 and $30
www.ticketmaster.com
404.249.6400

ABOUT THE ARTIST:

Peter Max emerged as an American Pop Artist in the 1960's and has evolved over the last two decades into the new expressionist style featuring bold, multi-colored brush strokes. His work includes Dale Earnhardt's NASCAR race car, Lady Liberty, postage stamps and presidents. In addition to painting a Boeing 777 jumbo jet, he has been the official artist for five Super Bowls.

CONCERT INFORMATION:

www.concert2cure.org
1.800.ACS.2345

concert2cure welcomes

Media contact:

Nancy B. Butler, 770.679.2185, nancy@concert2cure.org

WHAT'S UP[®], FirstFax[™], Custom Fax, PicturePost[™], Viewerlink HTML E-mail ©2001 AppliedTheory Corp.
Atlanta Edition transmitted Monday-Saturday mornings to over 500 Georgia media professionals, civic leaders and business executives.
Custom transmissions sent worldwide. For information, to update a contact name or remove your name from our list, call 770.671.0200. Faxline 770.671.0110.
1200 Ashwood Parkway, Suite 135, Atlanta, GA. 30338 • Not responsible for errors or omissions.

AppliedTheory[®] Net Potential. Realized.