

WHAT'S UP[®] ATLANTA

Tuesday, January 30, 2001 • Page 1 of 3 • A Service of AppliedTheory™

concert²
cure

Speech of Arrested Development and Michelle Malone leads concert2cure benefiting American Cancer Society
March 3rd and 4th, 2001

Gurufish, The Eddie Bush Group, Cool for August, Tim Acres Band, Soup are just a few of the local music groups that will participate in concert2cure, a 10-hour benefit concert to raise awareness and funds to fight cancer at the Tabernacle. March 4th continues at CJ's Landing with The Sonya Tetlow Band, King Johnson and many more.

WHAT:

concert2cure benefits the American Cancer Society and features 22 well-known area bands performing a variety of musical styles from blues to pop-rock. We hope to raise $100,000.

WHEN/WHERE:

March 3, 2001, doors open at 4 p.m.
The Tabernacle, Tickets: $20 and $30
Ticketmaster 404.249.6400
or www.ticketmaster.com

March 4, 2001 at C.J.'s Landing doors open at 3 p.m.
No fee with Tabernacle stub, otherwise $12.00 at the door.

Concert Info: 1.866.226.2463
www.concert2cure.org

OPPORTUNITIES:

- Participating band members who have been impacted by cancer are available for interviews.
- David Baumgarten, Atlanta businessman, cancer survivor and event organizer is available for interviews.
- Hope Hines, American Cancer Society is available for interviews.
- Sponsorship and pre-concert promotions

Hope. Progress. Answers.

Media Contact: Nancy B. Butler, 770.679.2185,
nancy@concert2cure.org

Sponsorships: Sherry Jenkins, 770.937.7045
sherry@concert2cure.org

TBS

HEADLINE
Subheadline In Italic

Body copy in Myriad 565 Normal

Contact: